

BUDDHIST HOLY RELICS EXHIBITION SYDNEY 2006

5-20 August 2006

15 April 2006

Dear Friends in Dharma,

Our committee and Van An Meditation Centre are pleased to invite you to the opening ceremony of the Buddhist Holy Relics Exhibition Sydney 2006 on Saturday 5 August 2006 at 10:30am at Van An Meditation Centre 215-223 Redmayne St, Horseley Park NSW 2164.

More than 100 relics the Great Stupa of Universal Compassion collection and relics on loan from the Sunnataram Forest Monastery collection will be exhibited including holy relics from Kasyapa Buddha, Shakyamuni Buddha, Venerables Maudgalyayana, Sariputra, Ananda, Nagarjuna, Chophak, Atisha, Milarepa, Lama Tsongkhapa, the First Karmapa, Pabongka Rinpoche and over forty other holy beings etc.. The net proceeds of this exhibition will be donated to the Great Stupa to contribute to the costs of building its Great Stupa.

Special sessions of two hours duration can be allocated for your organization to lead prayers either in an ethnic language or in English. We wish that every Buddhist organisation in Sydney will be part of this unique event. Please email us your suggestions or ideas.

We attach our leaflet on the exhibition. Please bring it to the attention of your members. We especially invite the aged or sick members in your community to this exhibition.

Wishing you continuous blessings from the Buddhas
Buddhist Holy Relics Exhibitions Sydney 2006 Committee and Van An Meditation Centre

Lozang Chophel
Exhibition Co-ordinator